Friday 1st
NEW YEARS DAY
DJ GALEFORCE AND FRIENDS
7pm - 2am / Free Entry

Happy New Year one and all. We're OPEN ALL DAY! Yes, hardcore round these parts. Come down for some grub, relax, hair of the dog, and party on well into the New Year. DJ Galeforce and friends keep the party stoked with a mix of soul, house and indie anthems.

Saturday 2nd
CHRIS BOUND
7pm - 2am / Free Entry

Last time Chris played the Oakford, a conga-line made its way through the venue. So expect the unexpected as he plays his usual eclectic mix of everything from swingtastic swing and hip-adi-hop to classic rock anthems and the odd bit of dance in there too. A night to kick out the jams? Of course!

Sunday 3rd
OPEN DECKS
7pm - 1am / Free Entry

Fancy spinning some banging tunes? Email in advance a 10 track sample playlist to oakfordsocialclub@hotmail.co.uk or drop in to the bar for a chance to showcase your DJ skills. You'll be glad you did, you may be offered a weekend residency!

Friday 8th
CROSTOWN TRAFFIC
7pm - 2am / Free Entry

George and Olly go crate digging to get your toes tapping and bring funk to your trunk. From the 60's mod all the way through to Motown, punk, disco, electro and then smashing it home for the last two hours. Expect anything from Drum&Bass to Itchy-coo Park, from Florence to the latest underground tunes. It's Friday, it's the weekend, don't miss it.

Saturday 9th
MR BLING PIG PRESENTS
WE ALL LIVE AND DIE
THE DISABLISTS
(WORLD DMC CHAMPIONS)
MR B THE GENTLEMAN
RHYMER - LIVE
IBETYA / MR BLIND PIG
7pm - 2am / Free Entry

WALAD kicked off in 09 with performances from some of the best in the biz, Radioactive Man, Dan Le Sac, Bass Clef and My Toys Like Me, only a few months after and the duo Mr Blind Pig & Ibetya are about to announce further club dates in London, Bristol and Brighton. This night is soon to be one of the hottest around, catch it here, where it all started. This edition features The Disablists started life as a Jazz Trio, realised that they had no talent for real instruments and bought turntables. They have been UK DMC Team Champions three times and 2nd at the world finals, supporting massive acts in the fields of both Hip Hop and Drum and Bass along the way. Mr B The Gentleman Rhymer also appears live, with a swing in his step. Swing-Hop.

BBC INTRODUCING...
JOHNNY ARROW & THE CHEAP
DAY RETURNS - LIVE
+ MORE
7pm - 1am / Free Entry

The BBC Introducing LIVE in Reading collated by Mr Blind Pig, kicks off the New decade with a home-grown month, Jan see's some of Reading's finest talents, and emphasises the notion that Reading is the place to be in 2010, Local act Johnny Arrow & The Cheap Day Returns kicks off the New Year with their blend of indie pop, give in to your Britpop urges!

Friday 15th
KICK OUT THE CHAIRS
PETE WHEELER
7pm - 2am / Free Entry

Following a whirlwind end to 2009 where he played alongside Ed Chemical Brothers and to packed dance-floors at KOKO and The Garage, our regular party starter Pete Wheeler returns to get us all back dancing on the tables right here at his spiritual home. Expect to hear the best of old and new...Delphic rubbing shoulders with Blondie and The XX fighting it out with Daft Punk.

Saturday 16th
THE BLEEPTTEST
THE PREMARITAL SECT - LIVE
DACTYLS - LIVE
WEST READING GALAXY
ANGLO FRANKO
OSCAR THE GROUCH
7pm - 2am / Free Entry

The Bleep Test's first outing of 2010 is bound to be a corker (aren't they always?). Remember Elle Milano? We do. We loved them lots, well Adam has been busy and is here with his new band The Premarital Sect. Mark E Smith of The Fall is their god, and as to be expected, they're great. Do not miss their first gig in Reading. Remember The Souls? We do. We loved them lots, they were luminaries of the Rakes & Bloc Party, but were always loads better... formed from their ashes are Dactyls. Harder, Faster, Better, Stronger. They're brilliant. Expect the usual great soundtrack to the night, that'll keep you moving till hometime.

Sunday 17th
BLACK & WHITE
TIFFANY PAGE - LIVE
+ LOCAL GUESTS
7pm - 1am / Free Entry

New signing to Mercury Records, and with first single, Walk Away Slow, on its way, it's Tiffany's voice that will strike you first. It's a voice that knocks you back and then sits you to attention. It has the sassy swagger of Chrissie Hynde, Shirley Manson's vampish purr and the hellion roar of Courtney Love. Wrapped around three perfectly formed minutes of sunburst guitars and choruses that cement to the inside of your skull only enhances the effect.

SMASH / MONKEYSUIT
EDDY TEMPLE-MORRIS (XFM)
LOSERS - LIVE
MIDIMIDIS - LIVE
7pm - 2am / Free Entry till 9pm
£3 NUS / £2 Regulars Card

New for 2010, our flagship Saturday of the month "SMASH", and on this occasion in association with the delicate beauty of Monkeysuit. Featured for tonight's show XFM legend Eddy Temple-Morris, who hosts crossover show The Remix. A seasoned pro at Ministry of Sound, Manumission, Glastonbury, Bestival, Isle of Wight, Reading&Leeds, and Ibiza Rocks. "the first DJ in our history to get the crowd jumping and singing along BEFORE we get onstage" - Liam Howlett, The Prodigy. We also welcome a live set from electronica rock outfit Losers (Eddy Temple-Morris XFM and Tom Bellamy - Ex Reading Legends The Cooper Temple Clause). Their sound has been described as the twin headed beast of The Prodigy and Soulwax Nite Versions. Opening the night hot Reading act Midimidis who compose all of their songs using 8bit and Midi whilst adding guitars and crooning vocals. XFM, Radio 1 & BBC 6Music are big fans too!
